Dear Benefactor,

Thank you for your generous donation.

I often think of our children and their uncertain future. What awaits them? Providence will be present, even among them, through good people like you, whom we thank with all our hearts.

"Are our times difficult? They have always been like this, but God has never failed to help". (Don Bosco)

Simona works in the Vatican for refugees. She came to caress the children of a Nairobi slum. To understand suffering, you have to touch it.

How much luxury and how much waste this Christmas. How many Jesuses left to live in total darkness, in the garbage dumps of the world. Who is more in the dark? The one without electricity in his shack, or the one who, amid so many lights, draws the black curtains and leaves his heart in darkness? To whom will our hearts go this Christmas? To Stacy, sick, who must survive with her husband and four small children, on 500 Shs a day, in a 3x3 meter hut? Or to the elderly mother in the shelter? Or to Leo, 17, who, paralyzed, spends his days in the darkness of the shack, all alone, waiting for his mother to return from work?

Whom will our Christmas be with? I know whom yours will be with: with the poor boys of Don Bosco, so that God's help may never be lacking in their future. Thanks to you and to all your beloved ones. May our Christmas be an embrace of Jesus. Merry Christmas! Fr. Felice
