Dear Benefactor.

Thank you for your generous donation.

There can be no true Lent and Easter of joy with Jesus without thinking of the many children whose joy is being robbed, because they are hungry, sick, or in war zones... Children can guide us on our Lenten and Easter journey.

“Jesus Christ made himself small with the little ones. This is our model!” (Don Bosco)

“- Father, forgive me if I call you late at night, but my child is home from school. – Good evening, Mom! What grade is your child in? – Third grade. – Why is he at home? – You know, with the cuts in American aid, they no longer give food at school and I don't have food to give my child: we all eat only once a day, in the evening and then... now even for lower classes we have to pay and I don't have a cent, because I can't find kibarua anymore, not even washing the clothes of the wealthier people in the slum. – How much do you need to send him to school?

– 3,500 – Don't you even have that? – No, Father.”

Ignorance creates poverty and poverty creates ignorance and with it misery, submission and wealth, but the latter, only for the rich who need poor ignorant people to be able to have those who serve them at a low price.

Can we live this time “thinking with love” of the too many children left in ignorance and work so that the Resurrection of Jesus becomes Resurrection for all the children of the world?”-

A heartily, Committed Lent and Happy Easter! With much gratitude and affection,

Fr. felice
