Dear Benefactor,

Thank you for your generous donation.

For us, Salesians and friends of young people, January is the month dedicated to Don Bosco: to know, love and imitate him.

“Where charity reigns, happiness reigns.” (D. Bosco)

On Christmas Day, as I was leaving church, a stranger approached me: poorly dressed, with a very worried look on his face. “Father, they told me to come to you.” “Who told you?” “I don’t know, I don’t know anyone here.” I immediately became defensive, as I sometimes do with the poor people I encounter. It’s shameful to say it, but I too am afraid of being disturbed by the poor, even though I love them so much. “I fled the Congo with my three children after the guerrillas killed my husband, cutting off his head. I have nothing to give my children. Yesterday we didn’t eat.” I thought that Don Bosco found himself in these situations every day, even if not always so dramatic. I asked the parish for food and gave her some money. She left peacefully, as peaceful as a mother of three children could be, a refugee and suffering from having seen, together with her children, her husband die, in that way. She didn’t tell me her name and I haven’t seen her again, but I think about her often.

Here, Don Bosco should be able to open his heart to so many... every day brings a new moment of tragic suffering. We are called to imitate Don Bosco, who never gave up. I thank you because you, who know all these things, don’t just deplore them, but help us resolve them. May Don Bosco count you among his dearest friends. Thank you on the behalf of so many suffering people helped by Don Bosco.

With much affection and gratitude, Happy Don Bosco Day!
