Dear Benefactor,

Thank you for your generous donation.

Don Bosco is so grateful to you who do not leave him alone with his many children in need of everything, but, above all, love.

*"I found myself alone, an exhausted worker, in poor health.
Where should I gather my boys?"*

(Don Bosco, abandoned and rejected by all, because of his love for "bad boys"!)

As a child, Don Bosco also suffered hunger. He will spend his life making people love Jesus Christ, but the Christ, Whom he loves, will tell him to think of the material and spiritual hunger of his children and young people. Today, with Don Bosco, in Kenya and Sudan, thousands of children do not always have enough to eat. In the Kakuma refugee camp, rich nations have cut off food supplies with unacceptable cruelty. For the children on the streets of Nairobi and other cities, there is nothing but beatings and, often, worse. For the children of Sudan and South Sudan, the only option is to flee. "My child only knows the tents of the refugee camps," says a young mother, crying. Poor children struggles to survive, while the rich men are making money with weapons to kill the poor and to kill their conscience and to render their heart like a stone. May the Lord convert them!

May Our Lady and Don Bosco reward you greatly for having decided to go against the flow and be, with us, bread and a gift of love for all.

With deepest affection and gratitude,

Fr. Felice
