Dear Benefactor,

Thank you for your generous donation.

We are in the month dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, dedicated to that Love that knows no bounds. You are on the path of Jesus, with your generous love for our poor children. May Jesus reward you.

“Poor, he’s obsessed with those kids. He’ll end up in a mental hospital.”

(Some people said about poor Don Bosco)

Passionate as he was, Don Bosco never allowed himself to be discouraged, not even when the priests themselves called him crazy. Jesus Christ wanted to be with young people, and Don Bosco wanted to bring them to Him. He knew that there is no more beautiful way to live than to feel embraced by Jesus. For them, Don Bosco travelled to every continent and today is present in 137 nations. His heart desires to reach all the young people of the world.

Thus, he is found even in the most deserted areas, such as northern Kenya, where people live in humble huts made of woven branches, covered with recycled sheets and rags.

Will these children always live like this? What is their future? Is Don Bosco content to let them grow up without school, dedicated only to their livestock? Of course not. Don Bosco loves them with a father's heart. Several of them are welcomed into our schools in Kenya and are preparing to become the future of their people, giving dignity and hope to the young people of today and tomorrow.

Just as then, Don Bosco can do all this thanks to so many good people like you. Let's not be discouraged. We are passionate like Don Bosco, and many young people will feel the beat of our hearts.

With deep gratitude and affection,

Fr. Felice
