Dear Benefactor,

Thank you for your generous donation.

In the month of November, a shadow of sadness passes over our faces: the memory of our loved ones who have gone before us. We know that they are in the embrace of the Lord, but we would like to see them, hear from them, hug them... This month, we pray in a special way for all our benefactors who have gone before us.

I await you all in Heaven! (Don Bosco to young people, before he died).

That sack that you see, surrounded by grieving people, contains the body of a poor refugee, in the Kakuma refugee camp, in northern Kenya, where Don Bosco runs seven vocational training centers. This poor man died far from his country, far from his loved ones. He was certainly young, because old people don't arrive in the camp: they die before arriving.

Someone looks to the refugees with contempt, as people who are invading their country. May the Lord forgive them! I know that you have a big heart, able to embrace every person as a daughter and son of God.

I thank you for all the love you have for our poor, especially the young. Too many of them die like this, as refugees and rejected.

Thank you for your great kindness, and may this month help us to open our hearts to everyone, so that all of us will find ourselves together before God, as his children.

With deep gratitude and affection,

Fr. Felice
