Dear Benefactor,

Thank you for your generous donation.

For us, November is dedicated to remembering and praying for all those who have joined the ranks of the risen, with Christ. As we remember them in prayer, we ask them to join us in thanking you for all the good you do for the poor children, in whom you see Jesus.

"Onward, onward, always onward! Now it's your turn. I'll be waiting for you all in Paradise." (Don Bosco)

Now it is your turn, Don Bosco tells us. Move forward. There are so many young people to save. Pull them off the streets. Save them from drugs and from those who use them to commit acts of violence, in order to promote their own agendas. Never stop. There is a sea of young people suffering from poverty, hunger, a lack of educational opportunities, and forced involvement in war. Not to mention those exploited by the sordid sex trade or used by various drug mafias. David (the man you see in the photo with the street kids) and his friends have decided to follow Don Bosco, as Salesian Cooperators. Every Sunday, they head to the streets of Nairobi—to the city's most dangerous and notorious areas—to meet the "dead": young people who have died inside, who have lost all hope. One by one, they bring them to Don Bosco so that they may rise again.

This month, we pray for the deceased, but also for the many young people who are dead inside. Jesus, Our Lady, and Don Bosco want them to rise again. Lend us a hand; let us move forward, and we will come to know, in them, the joy of the risen ones.

With great affection, a huge thank you, and an even bigger hug.

Fr. Felice
