Dear Benefactor,

Thank you for your generous donation.

If only the Lord would express our gratitude for all the love you have for our Missions! I know He wants it, and we ask Him for it, just as we ask Him to bless you and your loved ones.

“To do good, you need to have a little courage and be ready to suffer a little.” (Don Bosco)

Many of them were children from our oratories and schools. Perhaps none of them thought that one day they would bind their lives to the Lord through Don Bosco. On August 16, the 211th anniversary of Don Bosco's birth, 19 of them, courageously, decided to dedicate their entire lives to poor youth.

What awaits them, or rather, who awaits them? Awaiting them are the young people from Don Bosco's schools in Kenya and Sudan, the children rescued from the poverty of the slums and those living in the streets of Nairobi, whom Don Bosco rescues from the drugs that consume their lives. They are the young people from the refugee camps of northern Kenya to whom the Salesians give a future. This commitment requires great courage and the capacity to suffer, but above all, it takes great love.

Don Bosco feels great joy. He knew that one day in Africa he would still be a flag-bearer to be followed in loving young people.

To do all this, Don Bosco can also count on you.

Thank you so much and a big hug.

Fr. Felice
